God in his love
Poem by F Pratt Green
Rev. Andrew Patterson

God In His Love for us lent us this planet
Gave it a purpose in time and in space
Small as a spark from the fire of creation
Cradle of his life and the home of our race

Thanks be to god for its bounty and beauty
Life that sustains us in body and mind:
Plenty for all, if we learn how to share it,
Riches undreamed-of to fathom and find

Long have our human wars ruined it's harvest:
Long has earth bowed to terror of force;
Long have we wasted what others have need of,
Poisoned the fountain of life at its source.

Earth is the Lord's: it is ours to enjoy it,
Ours as his stewards, to farm and defend.
From its pollution, misuses and destruction,
Good Lord, deliver us, world without an end.

Remember
A poem by Christina Rossetti
Rev. Andrew Patterson

Yet if you should forget me for a while
And afterwards remember, do not grieve:
For if darkness and corruption leave
A vestige of the thoughts that once I had,
Better by far you should forget and smile
Then you should remember and be sad.

Wise words
I regard death as transition to something else that we can have no real idea about
- Helen McCullagh

Just because we cannot see over the horizon doesn't mean there is nothing beyond
